

Conflict of Interest Policy for the American Conference of Cantors

The purpose of the following policy and procedures is to prevent the personal interest of staff members, board members, and volunteers from interfering with the performance of their duties to the American Conference of Cantors; these personal interests should not result in personal financial, professional, or political gain on the part of such persons at the expense of American Conference of Cantors or its Members, supporters, and other stakeholders.

Definitions: Conflict of Interest (also Conflict) means a conflict, or the appearance of a conflict, between the private interests and official responsibilities of a person in a position of trust. Persons in a position of trust include staff members, officers, and board members of American Conference of Cantors or members of their immediate family. Board means the Board of Directors. Officer means an officer of the Board of Directors. Volunteer means a person -- other than a board member -- who does not receive compensation for services and expertise provided to American Conference of Cantors and retains a significant independent decision-making authority to commit resources of the organization. Staff Member means a person who receives all or part of her/his income from the payroll of American Conference of Cantors. Member means a Member of American Conference of Cantors. Supporter means corporations, foundations, individuals, 501 (c) (3) nonprofits, and other nonprofit organizations who contribute to the American Conference of Cantors.

POLICY AND PRACTICES

1. Full disclosure, by notice in writing, shall be made by the interested parties to the full Board of Directors in all conflicts of interest, including but not limited to the following:
 - a. A board member is related to another board member or staff member by blood, marriage or domestic partnership.
 - b. A staff member in a supervisory capacity is related to another staff member whom she/he supervises.
 - c. A board member or their organization stands to benefit from an American Conference of Cantors transaction or staff member of such organization receives payment from American Conference of Cantors for any subcontract, goods, or services other than as part of her/his regular job responsibilities or as reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred as provided in the bylaws and board policy.
 - d. A board member's organization receives grant funding, an honorarium or scholarship from the American Conference of Cantors.
 - e. A board member or staff member is a member of the governing body of a contributor to American Conference of Cantors.
 - f. A volunteer working on behalf of American Conference of Cantors who meets any of the situations or criteria listed above.
 - g. A board member receives a gift, gratuity, trip, personal property or other items of value in excess of $25 from an outside person or organization as an inducement to do business or provide services to the American Conference of Cantors.

- h. A board member's personal beliefs, values and commitments may present a conflict of interest when they interfere with a board member acting for the benefit of the American Conference of Cantors and from carrying out their fiduciary responsibilities as board members.
 - i. A board member uses the services, equipment or other property of the American Conference of Cantors for personal or family gain.
- 2. Following full disclosure of a possible conflict of interest such as any condition listed above, the Board of Directors shall determine whether a conflict of interest exists and, if so the Board shall vote to authorize or reject the transaction or take any other action deemed necessary to address the conflict and protect the American Conference of Cantors' best interests. Both votes shall be by a majority vote without counting the vote of any interested director, even if the disinterested directors are less than a quorum provided that at least one consenting director is disinterested.
- 3. A Board member or Committee member who is formally considering employment with the American Conference of Cantors must take a temporary leave of absence until the position is filled. Such a leave will be taken within the Board member's elected term which will not be extended because of the leave. A Board member or Committee member who is formally considering employment with the American Conference of Cantors must submit a written request for a temporary leave of absence to the Secretary of the American Conference of Cantors, c/o the American Conference of Cantors' office, indicating the time period of the leave. The Secretary of American Conference of Cantors will inform the Chair of the Board of such a request. The Chair will bring the request to the Board for action. The request and any action taken shall be reflected in the official minutes of the American Conference of Cantors.
- 4. An interested Board member, officer, or staff member shall not participate in any discussion or debate of the Board of Directors, or of any committee or subcommittee thereof in which the subject of discussion is a contract, transaction, or situation in which there may be a perceived or actual conflict of interest. However, they may be present to provide clarifying information in such a discussion or debate unless objected to by any present board or committee member.
- 5. Anyone in a position to make decisions about spending American Conference of Cantors' resources (i.e., transactions such as purchases contracts) – who also stands to benefit from that decision – has a duty to disclose that conflict as soon as it arises (or becomes apparent); s/he should not participate in any final decisions.
- 6. A copy of this policy shall be given to all Board members, staff members, volunteers or other key stakeholders upon commencement of such person's relationship with American Conference of Cantors or at the official adoption of stated policy. Each board member, officer, staff member, and volunteer shall sign and date the policy at the beginning of her/his term of service or employment and each year thereafter. Failure to sign does not nullify the policy.
- 7. This policy and disclosure form must be filed annually by all specified parties.
